Andrea Doddato joins Brad Brewer Golf Academy at Rosen Shingle Creek Resort and Golf Club

Orlando, FL, January 28, 2009 — Top 100 Teacher, Brad Brewer welcomes fitness professional Andrea Doddato to the Brad Brewer Golf Academy, a Top 25 Golf School, located at award-winning Rosen Shingle Creek Resort and Golf Club.

“We are very pleased to announce our commitment to golf specific fitness is being taken to the next level with such a respected member of the fitness development community—Andrea Doddato,” stated Brewer. “We have been seeking a leader in the golf fitness arena with a shared mindset, to be available to all of our golfers whether on a professional, amateur or junior level. “

Educated at Georgia State University and certified by the American Council on Exercise (ACE), C.H.E.K. Institute, and, All American Pilates, Andrea has 13 years experience in the golf and fitness industry. Andrea spent her early years “on the bag” as an LPGA Tour caddie. This is where she began to combine her awareness of golfers’ fitness needs with her knowledge of fitness development.

Time well spent with The Golf Channel enabled her insight into other aspects of the golf industry which led to the creation of an independent golf fitness entity.

Andrea’s impressive roster of professional and amateur golfers not only benefit from her expertise and steadfast commitment to their sport specific fitness, but also from her friendship and staunch support of their endeavors outside the fitness arena. She is an advisory board member and contributor to Golf Fitness Magazine and has been featured on ESPN and the Golf Channel.

Andrea is available for one-on-one training and small group training, and also thoroughly enjoys leading large corporate groups through early morning pre-conference Kick Starts, and invigorating Meeting Breaks.

The Brad Brewer Golf Academy is, Golf for Everybody, offering a variety of programs developed for the New Player to Tour Player, in a private or group setting. Computerized swing analysis is included in all instruction. Stay Packages are at Rosen Shingle Creek Resort.
